The Soul Of Ancient Egypt

The ancient Egyptians believed that a soul was made up of many parts. In addition to these components of the soul, there was the human body. According to ancient Egyptian creation myths, the god Atum created the world out of chaos, utilizing his own magic. Because the earth was created with magic, Egyptians believed that the world was imbued with magic and so was every living thing upon it. When humans were created, that magic took the form of the soul, an eternal force which

To the Egyptian mind, the ren was as important as the soul because, through the continuing memory of that name, the being--or on a grander scale the civilization bearing that name--continued to exist beyond time. Bearing this in mind, one would have thought that the ancient Egyptians would have carefully chosen the name of their country.
